

AUBREY, LOLA, AND LYNDSEY AUDITION SIDES

START

INT. KITCHEN. DAY.

Lyndsey and Lola are in the kitchen. Lyndsey is standing with her arms crossed and Lola is sitting in a chair hugging her knees tightly. Aubrey enters, struggling to speak.

AUBREY

Mom is- Mom is- Mom is...

LYNDSEY

So I'm guessing you just figured it out?

LOLA

Lyndsey just said that mom is still alive. Is that true?

AUBREY

Yeah, so I just went into Dad's bedroom and found all these different papers. Apparently him and mom are part of this group called Project SS21.

LOLA

What does that mean?

AUBREY

Well I looked it up and apparently the SS stands for "We are the Savivors" in Latin, and 21... actually I don't know what 21 means.

Lyndsey nonchalantly pulls out her phone and starts typing something.

LOLA

(whispering to Aubrey)

What is she doing?

LYNDSEY

21 means "a wicked beginning" in the Bible.

AUBREY

How do you know that?

LYNDSEY

Looked it up.

AUBREY

But I looked it up and (Beat) it doesn't matter. So what I was saying was this group thinks that the apocalypse is starting and that they are going to save everyone. But not in a good way. It's like some sort of crazy cult, and our mom is the leader of it.

LOLA

Are you sure that's all true? Mom would never believe in something that crazy.

AUBREY

Oh no, she would. Her and Dad always had their theories, but I never knew it was something like this.

LOLA

Why would Mom ever want to scare us like that? Why would she ever want to fake her own death?

AUBREY

The contract I found said that she had to hack into some sort of secret government properties. I guess she didn't want anyone tracing that back to her.

LOLA

Lyndsey said she saw mom in a warehouse close to here. Can we go see her?

AUBREY

I don't think that's a good idea.

(beat)

Lyndsey, how did you find out?

LYNDSEY

This morning, I was in the car with my mom when we saw your dad drive out again. He looked suspicious, so we followed him and saw him park behind the warehouse. And your mom came out to meet him. Alive and well.

The dad's car door slams outside. Aubrey and Lola are obviously scared, but Lyndsey's expression doesn't waver from her hard-to-read poker face.

AUBREY

Lyndsey, leave. Now. Out the back.

Lyndsey rushes out of view from the camera. Aubrey grabs Lola's wrist and the two sisters bolt up the stairs.
